My dear Mr. Hewell,
Some time ago
you were good enough to give a friend of mine an opinion regarding a coin. I am, therefore, venturing to impose on your good nature by asking you about a coin of my own.

apparently silver.
The words on the portrait side read
"Georg et Augustus Christian Iohann."
and on the reverse,
"Frater et Ducis Saxoniae."

It will be good
of you to give me
your opinion, and I shall, sincerely

Enclose a "rubbing" herewith. I have tried to look up this coin and I did find a picture of one almost like mine. The date on mine is a year earlier, 1599. I did not have the coin
with me and I am a little uncertain
as to the coat of arms. It is appreciate your kindness.

Is an American three cent piece, 1866, of any value?

St.Catherines
Ontario, Can.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of April 28th addressed to Mr.
Edward T. Newell at hand! Mr. Newell is in Europe at this time.

The coin of which you send a rubbing is a half-stater of Christian II, with his brothers Johann Georg and August of Saxony. It is known as the "Three Brothers" piece. It is not a rare coin.

Very truly yours,

Curator
